EASTERN GOLF AMATEURS CONTEST FOR NORTH AND SOUTH TITLE

QUIMET AND GRAHAM TEE OFF IN FINAL AT PINEHURST

By ROBERT E. MARLOW.

Pinehurst, N. C., April 5.—Francis Quimet was scheduled to begin his 1920 golfing campaign with a win in the North and South amateur golf championship when he met Sam Graham of Greenwich in the final round of 36 holes today.

Graham shoots well at Pinehurst and has won many medals and match play tournaments here, but he is not quite in Quimet's class. He lacks the knowledge of shots and power through the fair ways and off the tees which Quimet possesses. Around the Pinehurst greens Graham should be a match for the Woodland star.

Graham's chances would be considerably better if the final round was not 36 holes. In such a case in three but needed three putts. Graham was the shot at seventeenth with a par-three. Bookenkamp sliced to the rough. At this hole both players had medal cards of 31.

Quimet and Weber found the going difficult as high winds blew over the course. Quimet got the lead early and held it to the finish although at one time he slumped and Weber gained three holes on him. At the turn Quimet was two up. He won the tenth and eleventh and became four up. Weber won the thirteenth and fourteenth, the sixteenth being but one down going to the seventeenth.

At the short seventeenth Weber drove into a trap while Quimet dropped his on the sand. He won the hole with a three. The cards:

Puzzle for Boxing Fans Tomorrow

A battle for boxing patronage takes place tomorrow night when final shows are conducted at one and the same time by the Armory A. A. and the Fenway A. A.

The Armory A. A. offering, which will be staged at the Grand Opera House, has as its leading feature a punch-swapping contest between Johnny Downes and Harry (Kid) Brown.

The Fenway's opposition show, which is due for Mechanics Building, boasts an all-star bill of three twelve-rounders of a class seldom equaled in local boxing history. Al Calzone vs. Frank Tillis, Paul Doyle vs. Barney Adair and Johnny Wilson vs. Pat Reed make up the card.

Final Round Is Eastern Affair

The final round in an Eastern affair. The South's representative, Perry Adair, lost early in the match play, while the two Westerners who reached the semi-finals, lost. Graham accounted for Dick Bookenkamp of St. Louis, two and one, and Quimet beat Harold Weber of Iverness by the same score.

Bookenkamp is one of a number of St. Louis boys who learned their game at the public golf links and have won their way to the front rank. He was runner-up in the Western and Trans-Mississippi championships last year and qualified in the National at Oakmont. He now plays from Midland Valley instead of Forest Park, the St. Louis public links.

Bookenkamp appeared to be in a position to beat Graham when these players were all even going to the sixteenth and he hit one down the middle while Graham drove into a trap. The Greenwich golfer made a wonderful recovery from the trap, as he tried on and held a long one for a four.

Who Discovered Ricoro?
Told by an Orchestra Leader.

"...Napoleon was a great man—
Ricoro IS a great cigar!"

"Napoleon Bonaparte discovered Ricoro", laughed the orchestra leader, "or at least, that was whom he was dressed like."

"It was at a magnificent masked ball at Newport, and my orchestra was furnishing the music."

"Between selections, I stepped out on to the balcony—and met Napoleon face to face!"

"Good evening", he said, "I have enjoyed your playing, and may I offer you a cigar worthy of your art?"

"I bowed to the compliment and lighted up. The cigar was—well—superb!"

"Your cigars are as excellent as your disguise", I said, "May I ask their name?"

"Ricoro", he answered, "An imported cigar masquerading under the domestic price of 2 for 27c."

"Since then, I play Ricoro through every intermission!"

Sooner or later you'll discover Ricoro. You'll be surprised at the rare fragrant quality of Ricoro—and even more surprised at its price. Grown on the hillsides of tropic Porto Rico, the tobacco is wonderfully mild and balmy. And because Ricoro is imported, duty free, it costs as little as domestic cigars. Made in a dozen shapes and sizes—8c to 3 for 50c. Sold only in United Cigar Stores.—"Thank You!"

Exceptional! Blue, 2 for 27c. Buy them by the box of 50—$6.75. 11 other sizes 8c to 3 for 50c. Imported from Porto Rico.
